The above public school of Frankfort was built in 1870 at a cost of about $5,000. The first school house in the village was built in 1836 with Josiah Carpenter as the first school teacher. The present modern school was built in 1925 with the gym being added in 1938-39. Miss Viola Lankenau is the principal.

ALL!

Frankfort Festival begins today, when its citizens will be observing three outstanding Red Letter Days. Red Letter Days, because all organizations have banded together to hold a Fall Festival and they invite everyone in all surrounding towns or anywhere to come and join in their celebration.

The purpose is to add to the fund with which to pay for the 20 acres that have been contracted for a village park.

The opening will be tonight. Be sure to visit the exhibition tent, the various games and rides and meet and visit with your friends. Everyone in Frankfort is host to all visitors these three days. If you do not get to see everything the first night, you are invited to come again Friday night. And if you did see everything, come again just to have fun.

Saturday will be the closing day and the big parade starting at 1:30 will be the main feature for the afternoon. The Joliet Grade School championship band in itself is sufficient. They will lead the parade and give a concert. Frankfort should be complimented in bringing to their town this crack band. Then the kiddies section in the parade will be something to talk about for a long time.

Saturday evening will be the closing and that's when everyone likes to linger and take a last look and try at the games and rides.

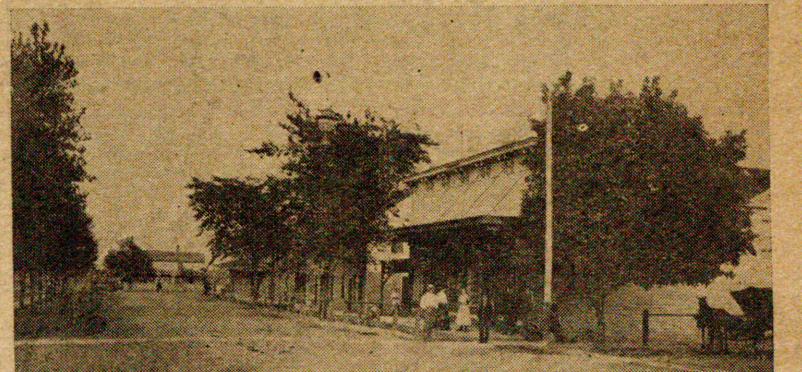

No time or effort has been spared to promote this undertaking to a successful conclusion. There will be plenty of good refreshments and the members of the Woman's club invite you to that booth.

With this special edition many will find pictures, perhaps of themselves, or old friends.

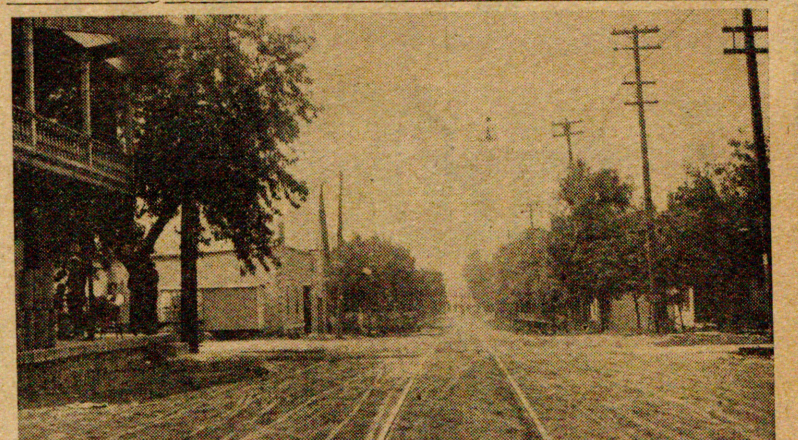

The publisher and staff of this newspaper, and the Festival committee as well as the entire citizenship bid you welcome during these three days and hope you will HAVE FUN!

Here we see the interior of the Frank J. Kohlhausen's general store which was taken April 27, 1914. To the right is Elsa Lankenau, Ricka Harnack, Fred Pyle and Mr. Kohlhausen. Noticeable is the heating stove, coffee grinder mill, bananas hanging in a bunch and the electric lights. What else can be identified?

At first glance it doesn't seem that this part of Frankfort's main street has changed much. But when we notice the horse and buggy and the hitching posts and rails, and notice the old street light hanging in the center of the street near the top of the trees, we realize it has been some years since this picture was taken. The man standing out in the front of the Kohlhausen store at the left is Frank J. Kohlhausen, his sister Emma is next to him and his father John Kohlhausen is sitting near the pole at the right. David Stephen is one of the other men. This store is now owned and operated by Conrad Mark.

The sign at the right top of this picture states, "Folkers Hotel." It is now the Priami ice cream parlor, restaurant and apartments. The old fashioned ice cream containers are stacked at right. But most important this picture shows the street car tracks going through Frankfort on the main street. It also shows the tall horse watering trough near the house, still standing, at the right. The street, gravel, and the electric light is noticeable. The Folkers livery barn is across the street from the hotel.

BIG PARADE SATURDAY October 7, 1950

AT 1:30 P. M.

BRIEF HISTORY OF FRANKFORT

It is a long cry when first settlers came to what is now known as Frankfort, with no roads, open prairies, no buildings, to the present day of hard roads and comfortable modern homes and village.

In going back in history centering around Frankfort, we must go back to 1829 when, according to "The History of Will County, Illinois, 1878" a W. R. Rice, his father William Rice and Miller Ainsley left Fountain County, Indiana, to take a look at the Far West. They struck the Iroquois, followed to the Kankakee, and then to the Desplaines river. Going up the Desplaines they came to Hickory creek, and going up that a few miles found a Mr. Brown living in an old Indian bark shanty, near what was the old Davidson place in east Joliet. It is thought that this Mr. Brown was the first white person buried in Will County.

Out of the above named men, the settlement of the old Red Mill east of Joliet came into life, and this Hickory creek settlement included then Joliet, New Lenox, Frankfort, Homer etc. To this settlement around 1830 came a number of men among whom was Matthew Van Horne and L. A. Cleveland.

Van Horne was a marked character, well and extensively known thruout Cook county, of which this territory was then a part. Van Horne settled near what is now known as Elsner Road and Lincoln Hwy. He received the appointment as postmaster and justice of the peace and the post office of "Chelsea" was established there. The only mail route in the county at that time was a weekly horseback delivery from Danville to Chicago which made a stop at Chelsea. It is a striking contrast between the present postoffice of Frankfort and that old dry goods box, roughly pidgeonholed, with the letters of the alphabet rudely inked on the edges of each partition.

Chelsea was later renamed Frankfort. It was named for Frankfort township, which had been named for Frankfort-on-the-Main. The village of Frankfort was laid out in 1855 and when Matthew Van Horne came from New York, and Francis Owen, grandfather of the late Willard Owen, came from Kentucky, these men with a few others, organized in 1832, the first church in Frankfort, which is the Methodist church. They held meetings in the homes, the first sermon preached in Frankfort being given by S. R. Beggs, a circuit rider, who preached in several other places also. In 1836, a class was organized in connection with the church in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Doty, parents of the late Levi Doty, a well known Frankfort citizen. Later a class and Sunday school was organized by Lorenzo

Above is the scene of the laying of the corner stone of the present St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church which was dedicated February 6, 1916 and which cost $20,000.00, a far cry from the first church which cost a bit over $2,000.00. The late Rev. George Lambrecht was the pastor and can be seen standing on the platform.

Ruggles, who was also a local preacher.

In 1855 the Michigan Central railroad was built. The following year the Methodist Episcopal church was built and completed in 1857. The building cost $2000. The deed to the property on which the church and parsonage now stands was signed July 17, 1857 by Sherman W. Bowen and Sarah, his wife, conveying the property to the church. The title to this property was accepted by trustees John Lefler, Levy M. Claves, Jacob H. White, James Oard, Lorenzo Ruggles and Newton P. Holden. The old church edifice was replaced in 1908 by the present building. The new parsonage, at a cost of $7000.00 was built in 1925.

In the Blackhawk war of 1832 all the people from this new settlement excepting Matthew Van Horne fled to the fort at LaFayette, Ind., for protection. The first store in the village was kept by a man named Higley and did not continue long. The next store really deserving such a name was opened by N. A. Carpenter in the spring of 1855. The first hotel was built by a man named Doud in the summer of 1855 and was later managed by the late J. R. Letts. The first postoffice in the village was kept by a Mr. Carpenter, deputy under Van Horne. The first grain elevator built by J. L. Herd and Co. of Detroit in 1856, burned in Feb. 1878. The Frankfort elevator was built in December 1875 and cost about $8000.00 and had a capacity of 42,000 bushels. It was run by steam power. After a fire in 1947 which completely burned the elevator, a new one, of concrete, modern in every respect in equipment, at a cost of $85,000 was built that same year. Henry Luhring is the present manager.

Among the first business places is cited in the history book, that of L. and J. S. Claus; B. Baumgartner; Jacob Mueller, and B. Balchowsky; A. B. Barker drug store; T. Herschbach, hardware and stoves; Steven's Bros. manufacturers of plows, wagons and agricultural implements with several butcher shops blacksmith and wagon shops, harness shop, millinery and several Lager beer saloons.

A doctor Holden, physician, was followed by Dr. Haas and many today well remember Dr. D. B. Hamlin who died in 1908 and was succeeded by Dr. W. V. Hedges. Since ill health caused Dr. Hedges to retire a few years ago, the Hedges Clinic was established with Drs. C. W. Otto and W. H. Cave in charge and in emergency Dr. Hedges still responds to office calls.

A few years ago Dr. M. J. Buckley, physician and surgeon, established residence and office in Frankfort where he also serves this territory.

In 1863 a Baptist church was built costing $1600.00, of which Rev. David Letts was the first pastor.

Many in the village today recall the only railroad passenger service in the village when the Michigan Central ran a train, called "The Dinkie" which ran from Joliet to Gary, Indiana; It made two round trips a day going west at 7 a.m. and returning at 7 p.m.

With the advent of hard roads, which brought in automobiles, and the coming through Frankfort of the street car, the Dinkie run was cancelled.

It was a marvelous day for the village when the Joliet and Eastern Traction Company railway was laid through the village. It received a good patronage. The first street car entered the village and commenced regular service on December 18, 1908. During the winter of 1917-18 a severe snow storm blocked all traffic and the street cars were blocked. The motorman, August Jahneke, alone had to dig his street car out of the snow twice, at the Henry Schmuhl farm and the Charles Cooper home just east of New Lenox. The last trip for the street cars was made in 1928 and many people regretted the incident as it did give splendid service for Frankfort people to Joliet and Chicago Heights. August Jahneke, now of the Jahneke Trucking and Paper company in Joliet, was a motorman and conductor and furnished us with much information. He boarded in Frankfort at that time. His brother George was also a conductor.

The first electric lights were turned on in the village April 12, 1913 and a few years later street lights were installed. Previous to that the village streets were lighted with kerosene lights. Mr. D. E. Brand was the lamplighter. Each morning he would go to each street light, extinguish it, clean and fill it with kerosene ready for the coming night. In the evening he would retrace his steps to light the lamp. William Knipple, who was village policeman, often assisted Mr. Brand.

In trying to gather a little data on some of the oldest people now in the village, Mr. Charles Bauman told us he was born in Frankfort November 1865. His first job was clerking in Barney Balchowsky's store when he was 17 where he stayed for eight years. He then went to Chicago and clerked for a number of years in Marshall Fields store. Leaving that store he owned and operated a tavern in Chicago for 15 years. He returned to Frankfort following that experience and took over the management of his father's tavern which was built in 1868, which work he still is doing. He has lived in Frankfort the longest of any living person today. He also worked for two years in the Barker bank in Frankfort before going to Chicago. That bank had a rather rough ending when it was closed with a dispute as to mishandling of funds.

The present Frankfort State bank was built in 1913 and John Luhring was the first and present cashier of the bank. It continues to do a flourishing business.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buck, aged 86 and 83, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deist, aged 86 and 84, Mr. and Mrs. John Minger are among the oldest people in Frankfort today.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Kohlhaugen though not quite that old, have had an active part in the history of Frankfort. Mr. Kohlhaugen was school treasurer for Frankfort township for 40 years resigning just a few years ago when his health began declining. He is still active as well as his wife. They have been married 54 years, the Deists 64 years.

This is a reminder of happy events when the old street cars served Frankfort. Here we see the former Miss Emma Sippel, taking her 50 or more piano students, and their mothers, by charter car to Electric park at Plainfield for a day's outing. Miss Sippel is now Mrs. Wilbur Meyers and lives in California.

We are grateful to Mr. Kohlhaugen and Mr. Bauman and many other persons for much of this information.

Lincoln highway was built in 1914 a 10 foot slab as an experiment in concrete roads, in the state of Illinois. That slab ran from Cherry Hill east to New Lenox, through the efforts of State Representative J. R. Bentley of New Lenox.

In 1920 it was extended as a two lane highway to Frankfort and east and it was the direct cause of the Inter-urban street cars discontinuation of service in 1928. Frankfort had another concrete road built directly in the village in 1927-1928.

Way Back When

News items taken from the old Joliet Daily News and the News-Bulletin of events and dates as given.

February 2, 1911—

A special article about Levi Doty states among other things: "One of the best known characters of Will county is Levi Doty of Frankfort. Though now entirely deaf, he has not been placed on the shelf. He was the one who engineered the movement back of the Fish and Game Protective association. The 70 years old, he is keen as a man of 40 and a tenacious fighter. . . . Acting for the creditors of the Exchange bank, he discovered there was no law which will punish wealthy malefactors in Illinois. He uncovered the Board of Pardons and revealed it as an agency for securing freedom for anyone who has the money to push matters. Doty can read character with an accuracy that has been worth much to him in his business affairs, and his estimate of men usually proves correct.

Aug. 7, 1912—

Dr. Emil Haass, Frankfort's venerable physician, celebrated his 85th birthday anniversary with his family. Dr. Haass has been prominently identified with the up-building of Frankfort. Although he has given up his active practice, Dr. Haass still fills out occasional prescriptions. He has full control of his faculties and is hale and hearty for one of his advanced age.

Nov. 26, 1913—

Raymond Warning was surprised in his home in honor of his 18th birthday.

Grading street preparing for the laying of the tracks for the Joliet, Eastern Traction company. Gone are the wooden sidewalks, picket fences, grading with horse and steam engines. Gone also are the watchers resting on the ties for the tracks, and electric lights have chased away the old kerosene light which can be plainly seen at the right upper corner. Some of these houses have been replaced with modern brick homes, and hard roads have made traveling in the village pleasant with little dust.

WAY BACK WHEN—

March 30, 1911—
The following names of Frankfort people are listed in an article of seventh and eighth grade pupils who successfully passed their examinations: Emma M. Voss, Lucille Folkers, Esther Yunge, Clara Harnack, Ruth Woodman.
May 20, 1911—
The fifth annual graduation exercises of the Frankfort public school will be held June 2. The graduates are Lucille Folkers, Clara Harnack, Henry Geutier, Verna Marti, Lee Folkers, Leonora Hinspeter and Vera Staff. They gave a class play entitled, "The Sweet Girl Graduate."

Nov. 2, 1911—
The first snow storm of the season came Thursday night. The fall was heavy but melted quickly.
April 18, 1912—
Highway commissioners of Frankfort township are facing a crisis just now. This is due to the refusal to build two miles of hard road voted on two years ago.

The voters of this township have drawn up a petition containing many signers to the effect that the signers agree to pay each his pro rata share of the expense of hiring an attorney for the purpose of enforcing the commissioners of highways of the town of Frankfort to build a gravel or hard road two miles west and south of Frankfort as per petition voted on in April 1910, and also as per gravel tax levy made by the said commissioners in September, 1911, the money of said levy being now in the hands of the commissioners.

Frederick Hinspeter circulated the petition; Levy Doty and Frank Kohlhagen are also quite active in this matter. It is said the highway commissioners have enough money or hand to do the work and the taxpayers demand that the work for which money was levied be completed.

Taken from the files of The News-Bulletin.
Aug. 28, 1919—

News items: Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Brandau Friday, a nine-pound son.

Frank Folkers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deust and daughter Miss Pearl and Miss Viola Lanke-nau motored to Starved Rock.

The following children had their tonsils and adenoids removed by Dr. W. V. Hedges: William Harnack, two little sons of Charles Eggers; two daughters of Jerry Jansen.

A lawn social was held on the lawn of the Methodist church, August 29.

Sept. 4, 1919—

Two strangers both young men, claiming to be from Valparaiso, Ind. brought a car into the Heusner & Mager garage Tuesday morning for repairs. They caused suspicion when they said they had to wire Valparaiso for funds. Instead of going to the telegraph office the men attempted to get out of town. They were watched and later caught in a field.

A company of young people of Frankfort chartered the Balchowsky jitney bus Friday night and journeyed to Mokena where a marsh-mallow roast was held along the banks of the Hickory creek.

Herbert J. Lambrecht has sold his soda fountain to a Streator party the past week.

THEY HAD HIGH SCHOOL PROBLEMS THEN TOO
News-Bulletin, September 4, 1919 issue:

Frankfort and New Lenox students who have been attending the Joliet township high school and those students who had planned to enroll this year are in a quandary as to what can be done to gain them readmittance to the high school, since they have been debarred on account of their respective townships being in debt to the Joliet township high school for back tuition fees.

About three years ago a nonhigh school tuition law was passed, but was knocked out before it became effective, consequently no appropriation was made for high school tuition fees by the respective townships named during the years 1916, 1917 and 1918. An effort had been made to pay high school tuition fees out of a state fund, but the supreme court handed down a decision that this was unconstitutional, therefore the townships are left without any high school tuition fund.

President Clarence Sterling of the Joliet township high school board

Who Am I?

I am a person born and lived all my life in Frankfort and still live here, although I am a number of years older than when this picture was taken. For the first person identifying the above person, the News-Bulletin will give $1.00, second 50c, and third 25c.

This is the first of the large homes built in Frankfort. It is the home now of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Harnack and built in the 1860's soon after the close of the Civil war by John Minger. It shows the effects of the big snow storm at Easter in April, but the year cannot be recalled. Could it have been 1920?

states that if the townships will include an appropriation to cover the back tuition fees when making up their appropriation for school funds, or if some of the people of the townships will guarantee the payment of the amount in arrears then the ban will be raised and the students from New Lenox and Frankfort will be re-admitted. There are other townships in the county in the same position as New Lenox and Frankfort. In all about $12,000.00 is due the Joliet township high school for back tuition fees. It had been estimated that it would cost each township $50 per pupil for tuition fees, but the high school board found they could not educate these students for less than $90 per pupil. The extra $40 has been paid in most cases by the parents of the students, but the $50 due from the townships has not been paid.

FRANKFORT MAN
TELLS OF TRIP TO EUROPE

Herbert Folkers, well-known attorney, of Frankfort, returned recently from a tour of several countries of Europe. His son, George, who was an exchange student at Basle, Switzerland, going there from Knox college at Galesburg took one year of study there. The schools are more advanced there and where he was in the first year here, he was in the first year there. Students to go abroad to study are chosen from among those making the highest grades and best recommended by their school.

Attorney Folkers had always wanted to visit Europe and took this opportunity to go while his son was there. He sailed in May going directly to England. He said this country, noted for the flowering hedge fences and rhododendrons, was very beautiful. The English cities and those of Germany and Switzerland, are among the cleanest cities of Europe.

He expressed surprise at the recovery that has been made all over the war-torn countries. There is practically no evidence of the ravages of war in the rural areas and the cleaning up of the cities is amazing. Whereas damaged buildings in this country are usually razed, over there they are repaired when it is at all feasible. The buildings there are made entirely of masonry and the red tile roof stood the attacks of war well. Very badly damaged buildings have been cleared away and in many places no traces of war damage remain.

In the cities of Holland, especially in Amsterdam and Rotterdam, the buildings were badly destroyed and the people of that country have made a remarkable recovery.

In Italy the rebuilding has gone ahead very well, especially of the churches. The paintings of old masters in St. Peter's church, in Rome, were put away for safe-keeping and are replaced with copies made in mosaic, so finely done it is hard to believe they are formed of the tiny stones. Mr. Folkers enjoyed Vatican city.

He travelled mostly by bus and said both train and bus service was very good, speedy and running according to time schedule. In Cologne, Germany, the well-known cathedral was so badly damaged it is still being repaired and it is not ready to be opened to the public yet. The buildings around it were completely demolished.

Because the bridges along the Rhine were destroyed by bombs during the war for such a long distance, it was necessary for the traveler to take a boat from Cologne. (Continued to inside page)

Glenwood School for Boys Leads With High Dairy Record

Eino Saarela, tester for DHIA Association No. 1, reports that the Holstein herd owned by Glenwood School for Boys, led this association last month by producing an average of 1161 pounds of milk and 40.6 pounds of fat.

Owners of other high producing herds are as follows: Walter Lauffer, Tinsley Park, 1060 and 35.3; Raymond Sippel, Mokena, 1035 and 35.1; Herbert Kohl, Matteson, 905 and 33.8; Louis Lauffer & Son, Mokena, 856 and 32.3. These were all Holstein herds.

Fred H. Holm & Sons of Worth had a Brown Swiss cow which was the highest producing individual cow in this association in September, with 1720 pounds of milk and 82.6 pounds of fat.

Other high producing cows were owned by the following: Herbert Kohl, 230 and 31.2; Glenwood School for Boys, 2060 and 30.3; Louis H. Holm & Sons, Mokena, 1230 and 33.8; Raymond Sippel, 1850 and 30.3. All were Holsteins.

Saarela says, "One of the large herds in the association is saving approximately 200 lbs. of grain per day by following a feed chart prepared for him. At a cost of $2.60 per hundred, this is a saving of $156.00 per month."

Mokena Girl in Auto
Mishap in Michigan

Miss Auburn Steele of Mokena figured in an auto accident recently while she and her friend, Miss Beverly Mavis of Chicago were returning from a Michigan auto trip.

The two girls had gone to Traverse City, Mich. to visit Miss Steele's grandmother and other relatives. As they were returning home a week ago Sunday a motorist, Richard H. Brehm of Tustin, Mich. was making a left turn from the center of a highway just below the crest of a hill. At the same time Miss Mavis was just coming over the hill crest and seeing the Brehm car at once applied her brakes. At the same time another car was coming over the crest of the hill which could not stop before he hit the rear of the Mavis car, thus pushing it into the Brehm's car.

No one was injured. About $300 damage was incurred by the Mavis car, $150 to the Brehm car and $75 to the last car.

Miss Mavis and Miss Steele remained at Cadillac, Mich., the scene of the accident until Wednesday until the car was repaired and they returned home. Her car is covered by insurance.

Returning with them was Miss Emmaline Haas of Travers City, a cousin of Miss Steele, who is now visiting in Mokena and in Chicago with relatives.

The mothers plan to go along on the trip. Later the children plan to tour Olson Rug company.

Study Methods of Soil Conservation

A soil capability tour was held by the West Monee Soil Conservation group at the Lloyd Artman farm last Tuesday morning to study characteristics of soil types, soil erosion and ways of using the land to keep it producing permanently.

Art Kelley, farm conservation planner, was present and pointed out the healthy physical condition of top soil in fence rows as compared to the sub-surface and subsoils.

The soil capability is designed to suggest crop rotations and practices so that the farmer may decide what particular kind of soil management program he prefers to keep the soil producing permanently.

A contour layout meeting is planned by the West Monee group for the near future.

Western Avenue farmers held a meeting at the Crete-Monee Community School last Wednesday evening and organized the Western Avenue Soil Conservation group which constituted the twenty-fifth neighborhood conservation group now activated in Will County to conserve soil and water.

K. Horath-R. Benson
Married in Chicago

A wedding of interest to Mokena residents took place in the Atonement Evangelical Lutheran church, Chicago, on Saturday afternoon, September 30, at 4 o'clock, when Miss Katherine Ellen Horath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Horath, of Chicago, became the bride of Robert Edward Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Benson, well known in Mokena. The altar was banked with ferns and white gladioli and lighted with candles.

The single ring service was read by the Rev. Martin G. Kabele. Miss Barbara Lee Ericson, sang "At Dawning," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer," with accompaniments by Mrs. Myrtle Nelson. The bride's father escorted her to the altar.

Her gown of white satin was lace trimmed, made with a nylon neck and buttoned down the back. The crown that held her veil was made of matching lace. She wore a double string of pearls, a gift from the groom and her bouquet was formed of nine baby orchids, with lilies-of-the-valley and green ivy.

The bride's sister, Marilyn, was her maid of honor. She wore a flamingo gown. The other attendants were a friend, Miss Marilyn Cretol, a cousin, Miss Pat O'Connell, and the groom's godchild, Sherry Nieland, who served as flower girl. The two bridesmaids were in fall green and the flower girl wore flamingo. All their dresses were fashioned alike, strapless with short jackets that were worn in church. They carried crescent shape bouquets of pink roses and green ivy.

The groom was attended by his best man, Jack Hurley, and ushers were Don Guendling, James Rauff, Arthur Hurley and Bud Stranquist. The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress, with burgundy shoes and purse, a burgundy feathered hat, with blue lace bow. Mrs. Benson was dressed in brown with matching shoes and a pink feathered hat. Both had white orchid corsages.

A chicken dinner was served at 5:30 o'clock for the bridal party of 21. A reception was held in the American Legion hall, at 64th and Lomb, at 7:30. A smorgasbord supper was served to about 400 guests. Tapers in silver candlesticks lighted the table, set with crystal and silver. The table decorations were spun sugar baskets centered in roses and peonies. The wedding cake, made in three tiers, was decorated with spun sugar roses, lovebirds and a bell.

When they left for a wedding trip to the Ozarks, the bride wore a red suit with lace blouse and black accessories. They will be at home after October 8, at 722 East 81 street, Chicago. The bride who graduated at Calumet high school, was employed in the C. T. A. offices. The bridegroom, graduated at Parker high school, is employed by the Rock Island lines. During the war he was in service for three years and served overseas.

DOGS AGAIN
ON THE LOOSE

Dogs again have been on the loose and out for a killing when they visited the Fink home across the street from Rudolph Engelhardt, 6545 135th street, Sunday evening about 6:30.

It will be recalled that the Engelhardt home is where dogs did so much damage by killing chickens and rabbits recently. Mr. Fink saw the dogs and took a shot at them which he thinks he hit while they were still on his property. He said they were a Great Dane and her two pups, which were not very little. The incident has been reported to the Palos Heights police officer and to the Cook county police department, and to the Protective Union of WLS.

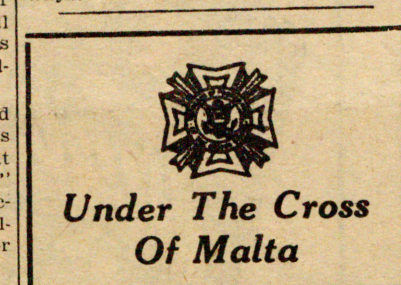

Mr. Ray Nielsen, investigator for the WLS Protective Union warns all persons in a position as the Engelhardts and Finks, when shooting at stray dogs be sure to shoot them while on the persons own premises, not on the street and then to call the police at once.

Following is what the law states on situations covering dog etc. ravaging:

Chapter 8, paragraph 7, section 12A, laws of Illinois, "Damage of Animals' owner or keeper liable—The owner or keeper of any dog shall be liable in an action on the case for all damages that may accrue to any person by reason of any such dog pursuing, chasing, worrying, wounding or killing any sheep, goats, cattle, horses, mules, poultry or swine belonging to such person, and when the amount of damage does not exceed $500 the same may be recovered in action before a Justice of Peace.

"H2-B: Any person seeing any dog in the act of pursuing, chasing, worrying, wounding or killing any sheep, goats, cattle, horses, mules, poultry or swine belonging to such person, and when the amount of damage does not exceed $500 the same may be recovered in action before a Justice of Peace.

Mr. Nielsen does warn against killing such dogs on streets or high ways.

Since the national encampment, much has been said about community service and more will be said before the close of the fiscal year.

The reason for all this talk is the $1000 prize to be given to the winning post and the many other prizes, individual and otherwise, a grand total of $35,000.

Now, what to do. Everyone concerned should look around for some community service to be done. Much of the service we can do need not cost any money, just a little time. For instance, there is the cemetery within the village limits. As a service group, we can make this cemetery a shrine instead of an eyesore. I know someone has the responsibility, but little is done, so I don't believe anyone will be angry with us if we take it over and keep it clipped and tend to the flowers planted there.

There are many other things that can be of service to the community. The trouble is that these things have been before us for so long we accept them as they are and think nothing about them.

All the members are reminded that the annual dues can be paid any time now. I hope we can have an 100 percent paid up membership by December 31, and that everyone will try to bring in another recruit.

Most all of you know what the aims of the VFW are, and know how important membership is to the veteran's welfare, so now go out and sell VFW to the veterans that are eligible to join. Frankfort and Orland Park have American Legion Posts, so remember what Chief of Staff Harvey Shipps said to do with those veterans who do not like the VFW.

Eino L. Saarela, Publicity P. S. A. masquerade ball will be held Oct. 28, 1950 in the Vets hall. Kenneth Tauber is the chairman for this dance.

Looking backward along the years, fellows and friends, tonight; Looking back at the smiles and tears, here in the cheerful light, When were the days—the golden days—the very best days we knew When did we walk in the gladdest ways under the skies of blue? When was our living the most sublime? When was our joy supreme?

Wasn't it back in the boyhood time back by the woodland stream? Wasn't it there on the country road when we were boys, ah, when When ever a heart had ever a lead with a word to wander in? Let us go back to the boyhood joys, back to the woodland way—Keep your hearts fifteen, my boys, No matter how long you stay.

Trial Held Tuesday
For Young Burglar

The trial of Clarence Mattson, 20 of Chicago, who burglarized the Yunker Implement place of business on 159th street early September 2, was held in Judge Andrews court at the State Police highway station on Cicero avenue Tuesday morning.

Erwin Yunker, the proprietor and his two insurance companies' representatives were present. Yunker and his father were also present. They had no attorney. Young Mattson pleaded guilty, was sorry for the damage he had done stating he was intoxicated, and that he desired to repay everything.

The damage amounts to $2424.00 and Mattson paid on the account at the time of the trial. The insurance companies accepted Mattson's promise to pay which will be paid to them directly, the companies settling with Mr. Yunker.

All present felt it was a regrettable situation as the youth and his father appeared to be the kind of people who would not be unlawful and that the debt incurred was unfortunate for a young man.

Attends Convention
To Show Invention

Harry Geist, of Frankfort, is leaving today for San Francisco, to attend the convention of the International Plasterers' association. He will have a booth there to demonstrate the "Green Dot outlet protector" to the plastering trade.

Mr. Geist, who is an industrial electrician, of 30 years experience recently invented this gadget which is placed in electrical outlets by the installing electricians while buildings are being constructed. It enables the wiring finishers to locate the outlets after they have been covered up with plaster, without damage to the plastered walls.

About 100,000 of the protectors have been sold and the output at Frankfort was inadequate to supply the demand, so the articles are being manufactured elsewhere and packaged in Frankfort. For this purpose Mr. Geist is using a building 32 feet by 18 feet, of frame and concrete, which he recently constructed on his property in the village.

He expects to return from California about October 14.

The horse power also has been doubled from the plane that made the 8,000 mile non-stop flight on December 7, 1948 from Ft. Worth to Honolulu and back undetected in Hawaii, commemorating Pearl Harbor day.

Col. Fogle is president of the Air Reserve association of the United States, Chicago chapter, and is proud of the development of the new B 36 D plane, which is to help make the United States more secure.

LOSSES

JOHN DEERE
No. 200 Corn Picker

Remembering the 1949 corn harvest—when high winds and hungry borers laid the crop low—you'll want to be prepared to save down corn this year.

You'll cut field losses to a minimum regardless of crop condition with a John Deere No. 200 Two-Row, Pull-Type Corn Picker. Long, gently-sloping gatherers with hinged points and down-down gatherer chains pick up the down stalks and guide them to the aggressive snapping rolls. Long wood and rubber husking rolls do a good job in heavy or light crops. And, contour rows present no problem, for the close-coupled hitch keeps the wagon directly under the elevator hood.

Weighing from 700 to 1,000 pounds less than other two-row, pull-type pickers, the John Deere is a "working" picker when fields are too soft for heavier machines... a lighter load on your tractor. See us for complete details.

Don't Be Satisfied With Symptomatic Relief!

HADACOL NOW MAKES IT POSSIBLE TO RELIEVE THE CAUSE OF YOUR SICKNESS

Neuritis Pains, Stomach Disturbances, Indigestion, Gas, Constipation, Certain Nervous Disorders and a General Run-down Condition When due to lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin in your system!

Read How These Folks Benefited Who Had Such Deficiencies

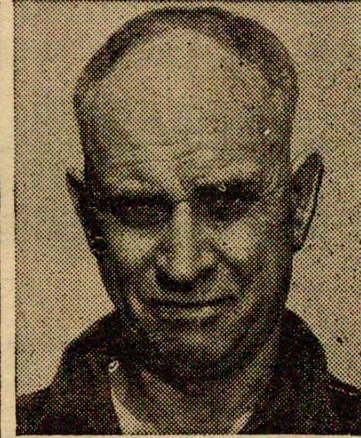

Mr. Anthamatten, 4731 South 32nd West Ave., Tulsa 7, Oklahoma, suffered from stomach distress for quite some time. He had spent much money trying everything possible for relief and was in bad health when he started taking HADACOL. He says, "After taking three bottles of the $3.50 size, I've gained 27 pounds and now eat anything I desire and positively have no trouble." (HADACOL gives such wonderful results because it actually relieves the REAL CAUSE of stomach distress [gas pains, heartburn, indigestion after eating] due to such deficiencies. And continued use of this great HADACOL helps prevent such distress from returning.)

Mrs. Mabel Kitchen, 1650 Amsterdam, Cincinnati, Ohio, "Before I started taking HADACOL I had aches and pains of neuritis in my shoulders, my back and arms. I could hardly move without having those terrible pains. Then I heard about HADACOL. After the second bottle the pains and aches were about gone. I'm now starting my fourth bottle and am on top of the world. I eat well and, best of all, the aches and pains are completely gone." (Mrs. Kitchen is a very smart woman because she relieves the REAL CAUSE of her neuritis pains due to such deficiencies. HADACOL often brings a wonderful improvement within a few days' time.)

Mrs. J. Scieszinski, 514 Kruger, Ottumwa, Iowa, writes: "My daughter, Marilyn Sue, is 5 years old and for some time lacked pep, had a poor appetite, was generally run-down. Since giving her HADACOL, we have noticed wonderful results... she has a much better appetite, eats everything on the table and doesn't seem tired like she used to. Incidentally, she likes to take HADACOL, too." (HADACOL is a great "builder-upper" for sick, nervous, puny kids whose systems lack precious Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin. A big improvement in their well-being is often noticed within a few days' time after taking the great new HADACOL.)

Mr. Henry Angel, RD No. 1, Springfield, Ohio, "I used to suffer great pain from neuritis aches in all parts of my body, especially in my legs, arms and shoulders. I never got any real relief until I tried HADACOL. After taking several bottles, my pain is all gone. And I'm working every day." (Now there's a smart man! Mr. Angel took HADACOL and relieved the REAL CAUSE of his neuritis pains because they were due to such deficiencies. HADACOL is helping thousands upon thousands of grateful men and women troubled this way. Why don't you give HADACOL a chance to help you? Start taking it today!)

IMPORTANT!

Why don't you get that wonderful HADACOL feeling everyone is talking about? In this modern age, wise folks are no longer satisfied with symptomatic relief — because now it's possible to relieve the cause of such deficiency sickness with that wonderful new HADACOL.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—vital elements every human being must have to maintain good health. You owe it to yourself to give HADACOL a fair trial. Many doctors recommend this great new HADACOL. It's sold on a strict money-back guarantee. Trial size, $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50.

BLOOD BANK AT HARVEY HOSPITAL

"For humanity in memory of a humanitarian" the inscription might aptly read on a bronze plaque which will adorn the entrance to a new blood bank which will be created soon at Ingalls Memorial hospital.

Fulfillment of a dream which originated with the hospital's directors is made possible by a $5,000 cash gift by Dr. M. Robert Weidner Jr., of Dolton, to be used for the establishment of such a bank as a memorial to his father, Dr. M. Robert Weidner, Sr., who died on July 27 at the age of 93 years.

No less important than the announcement that Dr. Weidner's generous gift had assured a blood bank was one which said the original deposit in the bank would be made by members of the hospital's Harvey Women's Guild.

Through President John Bardwick, Jr. the board of directors hailed the public-spirited offer of the women's organization, and pronouncing it as a fine display of civic pride and a most unselfish and laudable gesture.

When plans are complete and the bank is ready to go to work saving human lives, members of the guild will be typed and thereafter called upon to make their individual "deposits." Their contributions will not cease at that point, however, for they have signified they will replace blood used until the bank has been established on a self-sustaining basis.

"Too much credit cannot be given these women and we know that their contributions will be appreciated just as much by the doctors who use it as by the patients who receive it," Bardwick commented. "The bank will add substantially to the services offered by our institution and the importance of the women's contributions cannot be overemphasized."

In announcing the Dr. Weidner gift Bardwick proclaimed it one of the most substantial and most practical ever made to Ingalls by an individual, and at the same time he pointed to the fact that the bank would be a most fitting memorial to a doctor who had devoted 67 years of his long life to serving his fellowman both as a physician and civic leader.

Records treasured by the Weidner family indicate that the senior

Dr. Weidner, probably the dean of the medical profession in southern Cook county, had presided at the births of 3,120 children including one set of quadruplets, one set of triplets and 24 sets of twins.

Dr. Weidner's service to his townsmen was not limited to the practice of medicine, however, for civic records reveal that he was the first president of the Village of Dolton, a capacity in which he served for 11 consecutive years; in addition he served on the school board for a number of years.

Becomes Bank Head. At the age of 76 he was named president of the First National Bank of Dolton a position he held until he became 90 years old. He retired in 1930 from his practice, which was assumed by his son.

The bank will be a separate department within the institution, but Bardwick said this week that a number of structural alterations in the building must be accomplished before it becomes a reality. It will also require a certain amount of time to secure the necessary equipment and supplies.

President Bardwick points out that the bank will be operated on a non-profit basis, as is every department at the hospital. The sole purpose is to have the right type blood available at all times. In order to maintain the blood inventory it will be necessary for the patient who receives it to replace that which is used on a two-unit-for-one basis, the replacements to be made by donors furnished by the patient.

Because whole blood deteriorates its span of usefulness totals three weeks, there must be constant replacements. After the three-week period the plasma is drawn off and retained for emergency use. Altho blood used and not replaced must be paid for by the patient, the hospital is primarily interested in having the fluid replaced.

NEED MORE FARM SPACE FOR BIG BEAN CROP

Illinois farmers have been advised to provide more farm storage for the anticipated 1950 bumper soybean crop in order to ease a critical situation expected at harvest time. Although the cool weather has delayed the maturing of beans, harvesting is expected to be underway by the end of September.

"It now appears that we will face a crippling market glut when we start to move an expected Illinois crop of 93 million bushels of soybeans unless producers hold back some of the beans on their farms," Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association, warned.

Shuman said that terminal elevator space for soybeans is limited because of large stocks of wheat, corn and oats occupying these facilities.

The Korean war also has contributed to the increasing shortage of rail cars and this will further complicate the movement of beans to the terminal elevators and processors. An Aug. 12 report for all the railroads showed a shortage of 21,790 cars and the shortage grows each week.

In addition, today's modern, high speed soybean combines complicate the marketing picture by shortening the harvest time in periods of good weather and jamming the country elevator facilities.

Another worrisome factor are some stocks of old corn remaining in the country which are pulled into the market when the price is attractive. A rise in the corn market at the peak of the soybean harvest would further clog the normal trade channels.

"The safest thing for a farmer to do is to provide a place to store some soybeans on his farm or in cooperation with his neighbor," Shuman said.

"If farmers follow the usual practice of expecting the trade to take all of their beans immediately at harvest time, it is probable that producers will be faced with wide discounts," Shuman said.

The LAA president said that in addition to finding more storage farmers would do well to talk the situation over now with their local elevators and make arrangements for the orderly delivery of their beans.

The State Production and Marketing Administration office in Decatur reported that some of the steel bins that the Commodity Credit Corporation uses to store corn are available for rent for soybean storage in southern Illinois. From Macon county north, the bins have not yet been released for rental as the PMA does not know at this time how much space it will need for corn. However, this information will be available before soybean harvest time, and if the bins are not needed for corn they will be available for rent to elevators or farmers for soybean storage.

Elevators or producers wanting to rent bins should inquire at the county PMA office. The rental is seven cents per bushel times the rated capacity of the bin. The rental is payable in advance.

MANY HOME EC GRADS NEEDED

"More jobs than graduates in home economics"—that is the report from the University of Illinois department of home economics.

The department has been receiving 200 to 250 requests from potential employers each year for the past three or four years. Because their graduates were already satisfactorily placed, the department has been unable to recommend anyone in about half the cases.

Girls who have a home economics education can work in numerous positions in many fields. And they are also trained for homemaking.

If a girl wants to prepare for homemaking while acquiring a liberal college education, she can take the general course in home economics at the University of Illinois. If she wants to obtain training that will fit her for a salaried profession, she can choose any one of 12 majors in home economics.

Some of the positions available are for dietitians, teachers, clothes designers, home equipment consultants, home advisers, food demonstrators, radio editors, and many others.

For more information about home economics, write for the leaflet "Your future in Home Economics," Department of Home Economics, 109 Bevier Hall, University of Illinois, Urbana.

All Faiths Unit to Aid Europe's Hungry

Every state in the Union is being invited to participate in nationwide Friendship Food shipments to the hungry and friendless overseas sponsored by the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) which will send off a 60 carload ship from the port of Chicago October 24 in observance of United Nations Day.

Seventeen states have already contributed and assurance is coming from additional states from day to day. The United Nations Day celebration was announced today from the National headquarters of the CROP office here. The Chicago shipment will consist of one or more carloads of farm commodities from the 1950 harvest contributed by people in each of these seventeen states.

Simultaneously, Friendship Food in carloads lots donated in other states will depart on October 24 from widely scattered points of origin from coast to coast to the nearest ocean port for transportation to areas of need in Europe and Asia.

The food will be distributed in 25 countries overseas by CROP's parent agencies: Catholic Rural Life—War Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference; Church World Service, serving 22 Protestant denominations; and Lutheran World Relief, serving the National Lutheran Council.

The nation-wide shipment of Friendship Food from the people of America to hungry and friendless people overseas through CROP on United Nations Day will serve as a demonstration of America's belief in Christian brotherhood and our free democratic way of life.

The Christian Rural Overseas Program was established in 1947. During the past three years, 3,555 freight carloads of farm commodities were collected by CROP for distribution overseas under church supervision to orphans, homeless aged and sick people, who are not otherwise included in government welfare efforts.

The states which have already made up carloads or more for the UN Day ceremony are: Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas and Wisconsin.

Most of the Mayflower pioneers came to this country because they had been persecuted for their expression of beliefs in England.

James Franklin was the printer for the Boston Gazette, second newspaper in America, started in 1720. William Brooker was the editor.

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George E. Mahin, Executive Secretary
Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Attention, Illinois housewives
Here are some real bargains:

Butter at 15c a lb.; cheese 7½c lb.; dry peas, 2c lb.; dried eggs, 5c a lb.; and canned meat 5c lb. These are some of the bargains which we are advised by Tax Foundation in New York, your federal government is offering in an effort to unload its approximately 300 million pounds of surplus foods, mostly bought to hold up prices you're now paying.

But these bargains, we regret to report, are not for you. These products, valued roughly at 100 million dollars and bought by Uncle Sam with your taxes and mine are available to foreign countries only. Uncle Sam, it is estimated, will realize only 14 million dollars if he unloads all these bargains abroad. And he'll probably loan on tax money—and be lucky if he gets it back—to the foreign countries to take advantage of these bargains. We're contributing more to charity than any of us dream and we can't deduct these contributions for income tax purpose either.

The 30 million lbs. of Mexican canned meat offered at 5c a lb. were acquired when the U. S. and Mexico tried to stamp out hoof and mouth disease below the border. This meat cannot legally be sold in the U. S. market, but it cost the U. S. (that's US!) more than 300 f b. and not even one meat ball do we get.

Although all this surplus food is on hand, and Congress was recently asked to appropriate 50 million dollars just to get rid of it, none of it can go to the Army, for instance. So, in addition to spending millions to buy this food in the first place Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer must also foot the bill for the $2,508,267 which the Army spent for butter in June alone, and the $1,900,000 for eggs, etc.

The Illinois farmer, represented by the Illinois Agricultural Association, is not to blame. The IAA has long been trying to inject some common sense into this nonsense.

Who is to blame? Every Illinois housewife, every Illinois taxpayer and that means every Illinois citizen, is to blame who hasn't let their Congressmen know in no uncertain terms that Uncle Sam can't have guns AND butter, tanks AND pork barrel projects, weapons AND waste, not unless we are going to lose the war at home that we are winning abroad.

Now is our opportunity. Our Congressmen, our State legislators and our local officials are entering the stretch in the election race. Now is our chance to find out which ones will give us our money's worth in return for our votes.

October 9 is D Day on the home front. It's the last day for registration. If you aren't registered, you can't vote.

November 7 can be V day on the home front, provided taxpayers go to the polls to vote for those men and women who, regardless of party, will give us our money's worth in local, state and federal government.

The Boston tea party was planned in the back room of the Boston Gazette.

Thomas Jefferson aided in establishing the National Gazette in 1791.

Samuel Adams did most of his effective work in leading the movement for independence by writing for the press.

Washington's Farewell Address was first presented to the American public in the columns of the Philadelphia Daily Advertiser.

TODAY'S meditation

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5

"Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, then comes the harvest? I tell you, lift up your eyes.' (John 4:35, R.S.V.) Read John 4:27-31.

The disciples had the common attitude of the Jews toward the Samaritans. They did not expect the people of Samaria to know God in spirit and in truth. "There are yet four months," they said, "then comes the harvest."

Jesus had a different attitude. "I tell you," He said, "lift up your eyes, and see how the fields are already white for harvest." Many were won to Christ because of the woman of Samaria with whom Jesus had that very day talked.

An Indian minister visited a village where a few Christians lived. He spoke to an old man who had strongly opposed the Christians. Many times he had been invited to accept Christ. Once again the minister asked, "Why don't you believe in Christ?" To his surprise the man that day fell at his feet pleading to be baptized in Christ's name. He openly declared himself a Christian.

Jesus says, "Lift up your eyes."

PRAYER
O Father, we praise Thee that Thou didst seek us without ceasing until we were found. Deliver us from attitudes that keep others from knowing Thee. Open our eyes to see the harvest that is ready today. In His name, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
A Christian seeks to bring others into the family of Christ. —R. W. Scott (India)

The wear out age of motor vehicles has quadrupled since 1925. The Chicago Motor Club points out. According to comparative surveys, vehicles were being scrapped in 1925 after 25,000 accumulated miles. Current average mileage on a car being scrapped is 120,000 miles.

Twenty seven percent of all train vehicle accidents at night involve a vehicle hitting a part of the train other than the locomotive, the Chicago Motor Club points out. During the daytime, only 4 percent of train-vehicle accidents are of this type.

TINLEY PARK BIBLE CHURCH

A. J. Stewart Russell, pastor
Sunday school 9:45 a. m.
Morning service 10:45
Evening service 7:30

It's surprising the number of times I am asked this question, What does Tinley Park Church stand for? Although I have tried to make this clear before, I'll try again to make it clearer.

We are not connected with any denomination; we are not interdenominational; we welcome ALL, irrespective of denomination; we have no synod, no outside board; we are sound fundamental; we believe the bible to be the word of God from Genesis to Revelation. But the best way for you to find out for yourself is to come and see. Services every Sunday. Everybody is welcome.

FRANKFORT MAN—

logne to Mainz where a bridge is still standing. In Mainz 20,000 people were killed in 20 minutes. They were alerted and entered the bomb shelters, the bombers passed over the city and then unexpectedly returned after the residents left the shelters.

Mr. Folkers went by train to Basle, Switzerland. Travelers are unable to enter the Russian zone except by air. The citizens seem to be afraid to express their opinions of Russia but give one the impression they want no part of her or her policies. He said he could recognize no resentment among the German people against the American boys, and those outside the Russian zone seem satisfied with conditions.

Roads are all excellent but narrow. They are built of black-top, no cement having been used except on Hitler's highway, made during the war. The railroad stations of Germany were badly damaged partly because of the glassed-in roofs. Train service is good there.

The traveler enjoyed his opportunity to see the Passion play, at Oberammergau, and the production of William Tell, at Interlaken, both played in the open air.

The money of Germany seemed the most stable, next to Switzerland's.

land's. He said there was no black market in money. The rate of exchange as he found it was 460 marks for $1.00 in Germany, 350 francs for $1.00 in France, and the cheapest he found was 650 lira for $1.00 in Italy. In Austria a shilling exchanged for 3 cents.

English cooking was a disappointment to the Frankfort man. Their food is mostly starches, meat is scarce and eggs are just now becoming easier to procure. There is plenty of fish but no candy is obtainable as it is rationed. He liked the French cooking much better and a little more meat was available there, with plenty of other foods. In Germany a smaller amount could be gotten but the quality was better. He found the best food could be obtained in Austria with food costing from two to three dollars a day there.

There was a noticeable lack of drinking water in most of the places on the continent. In fact, he said, people acted surprised when he asked for drinking water, but wine was good and cheap. It was used everywhere with meals, mostly a light sour wine. In Austria it sells for 20 cents a quart.

In all his traveling there Mr. Folkers found no mosquitoes and no flies, with the exception of just two nights in Italy when the mosquitoes were around. The tourists seemed to flood Switzerland.

During his travels he seldom saw gatherings of people, in the streets. France and Italy were flooded with
